A Southern Child's Lament.

Mamma, they say 'tis Chrismas eve;
But tell me, can it be?
It brings no smile upon your face,
No merriment to me.
I am weary of these snow-clad hills,
No longer would I roam;
Oh! take me to the orange grove,
At our deserted home.

Our parlor looks so dark to-night;
We have no Christmas-tree;
No dainties on our table spread;
Mamma, how can it be?
The grass at home is soft and green,
The skies are bright above,
And little birds sing merrily;
Their songs of joy and love.

I long to breathe the pure, fresh air,
To see the bright blue skies,
To wander o'er our garden walks,
And chase the butterflies;
I long to see the tall pine trees,
For through their boughs to-day
The wind is sighing mournfully,
Because we stay away.

My child, your simple, artless speech
Makes tears unbidden start;
The light is dim within our home,
Gone out within my heart.
And if across our darkened path
Hope cast a trembling gleam,
'Tis but the phantom of a joy,
The mockery of a dream.

One promise sweet sustains me now:
To suffering ones 'tis given;
That they who bear the cross on earth
Shall wear the crown in Heaven.
One gift alone I claim as ours;
Upon the coming morn;
One gift from Heaven—a glorious boon—
The promised Saviour born.

BATHING IN THE DEAD SEA.—From a work recently published in England, the annexed extract on the buoyancy of the waters and the appearance of the Dead Sea, is taken:

Though in breadth not exceeding ten miles the Dead Sea seems boundless to the eye when looking from north to south, and the murmur of the waves as they break on the flint-strewn shores, together with the lines of drift-wood and fragments of bitumen on the beach, give to its waters a resemblance of the ocean. Curious to experience the sensations of swimming in so curious a sea, I put the tests to various accounts of the extreme buoyancy felt in it, and I was quickly convinced that there was no exaggeration in what I had heard. I found the water almost tepid; and so strong that the chief difficulty was to keep sufficiently submerged, the feet starting up in the air at every vigorous stroke. When floating, half the body rose above the surface, and, with a pillow one might have slept upon the water. After a time the strangeness of the sensation in some measure disappeared, and on approaching the shore I carelessly dropped my feet to walk out—when lo! as if a bladder had been attached to each heel, they flew upwards! The struggle to recover myself sent my head down; the bitter and briny stuff from which I hitherto guarded my head, now rushed into my head, now rushed into my mouth, eyes, ears and nose, and for one horrible moment the only doubt I had was whether I was to be drowned or poisoned. Coming to the surface, however, I swam to land, making no further attempt to walk in dead water, which, I am inclined to believe, is almost impossible.

EFFECT OF DARKNESS AND SILENCE.—Dr. Kane, and other Arctic voyagers, all testified that in those regions "where eternal silence reigns supreme," the effect upon the brain and ear, from the absence of sonorous impulses in the atmosphere, is exceedingly annoying and absolutely injurious to the auditory nerves. As the organs of hearing are destroyed by loud and continued noise, and an intense light will weaken and ultimately destroy the power sight, so it would appear that the auditory or the optic nerves becomes impaired by the partial or total deprivation of their unnatural stimulus, sound or light. Dr. H. Ralls Smith, of Chicago, writing experimentally to investigate this subject, recently upon a considerable length of time in the Kentucky Mammoth Cave, where silence and impenetrable darkness reigned supreme. The effect was very distressing and almost insurmountable, resulting in temporary defection of hearing and aberration of mind. From his own experience this gentleman is firmly convinced that the blindness of the finny denizens of this cave has been brought about gradually through successive generations, and from his observations he is confident that the sense of hearing is also wanting in these beings, although originally existing in the species when first immersed in their living tomb.

SAINT PATRICK.—"Saint Patrick was a gentleman," according to the old song, but he was not, as is generally believed, an Irishman. He was born, near the mouth of the Clyde, in Scotland, in 372. At sixteen years of age he was captured by a band of outlaws and carried a prisoner to Ireland. After a captivity of six months he escaped to Scotland. The pirates seem to have had a fancy for the young man, and captured him again; he was equally fortunate in escaping a second time. He was resolved to become a missionary to Ireland, and after a long preparation was ordained priest, and finally consecrated bishop. He entered on his labors in Ireland in the year 432, when he was at the age of sixty. His preaching was attended with such success that before his death he converted the whole island to Christianity. He baptized the kings of Dublin and Munster, and the seven sons of the King of Connaught, with the greater part of their subjects. A popular legend ascribes to him the banishment of all the snakes and venomous creatures from the Emerald Isle, by means of his crosier or staff, which was preserved in Dublin with great veneration as late as 1360.

WHERE TO LIVE.—All good men should live in Archangel; all angry men in Ireland; all murderers in Kildare; all circus-men in Smmerset; all bankers in Stockholm; all cold men in Chili; all geometricans in Cuba; all fools in Folly Island; horticulturalists in Botany Bay; wags in the Bay of Funday; perfumers in Muscat or Cologne; brewers in Malta; gluttons in Turkey; beggars in Hungary; laconic men in Laconia; mourners in Siberia or Wales; confectioners in Candia; children in Crimea; oil-speculators in Greece, dyers in Greenland; gamblers in the Farce Isles; stumblers in Tripoli; curious men in Pekin; shoemakers in Bootan; all soldiers in Armenia or Warsaw.

A Poor Musician and his Mate.

A STORY FOR THE LITTLE FOLKS.

One beautiful summer day there was a great festival in the large park at Viennna. This park is called by the people the "Prater." It is full of lovely trees, splendid walks and little rustic pleasure houses. At the time of which I am speaking there were a great many people there, some young and some old, and many strangers, too. Be that as it may, the Prater was almost covered with the crowds of people. Among the number were organ grinders, beggars, and girls who played on harps. There stood an old musician. He had once been a soldier, but his pension was not enough to live on. Still he don't like to beg; therefore, on this particular occasion, he took his violin and played under an old tree in the park. He had a good, faithful old dog along with him which lay at his feet and held an old hat in his mouth that passers-by might cast coins in it for the poor man.

On the day of the festival which I have mentioned, the dog sat before him with the old hat. Many people went by and heard the old musician playing, but they didn't throw much in. I wonder the people did not give him more, for he was truly a pitiable object. His face was covered with scars received in his country's battles, and he wore a long gray coat, which he had kept ever since he had been in the army. He even had his old sword by his side, and would not consent to walk in the streets without carrying his trusty friend with him. He had only three fingers on his right hand, so he had to hold the bow with these. A bullet had taken off the other two, and almost at the same time a cannon ball had taken off his left leg. The last money he had had been spent in buying new strings for his violin, and he was now playing with all his strength the old marches he had learned when a boy, from his father. He looked sad enough when he saw the multitudes pass by in their strength and youth and beauty; but whenever they laughed it was like a dagger to his soul, for he new on that very evening he would have to go to bed supperless, hungry as he was, and lie on a straw couch in a little garret room. His old dog was better off, for he often found a bone here and there to satisfy the cravings of hunger. It was late in the afternoon; his hopes were almost like the sun—they were both going down together. He laid his old violion down by his side and leaned against the tree. The tears streamed down his scarred cheeks. He thought none of that giddy throng saw him, but he was mistaken. Not far off stood a gentleman in fine clothes who had a kind heart. He had listened to the old musician, and when he saw that no one gave him anything his heart was touched with pity. He finally went to the dog, and looking into the hat saw only two little copper coins in it. He then said to the old musician:

"My good friend, why don't you play longer."

"Oh! my dear sir," replied the old man, "I cannot; my poor old arm is so tired that I cannot hold the bow; besides, I have had no dinner, and have very little prospect for supper."

The old man wiped the tears away with his feeble old hands. The kind gentleman resolved to aid him as best he could. He gave him a piece of gold and said:

"I will pay you if you will loan me your violin for one hour."

"Oh!" said the musician, "this peice of money is worth more than half a dozen fiddles like mine."

"Never mind," said the gentleman; "I only want to hire it one hour."

"Very well; you can do what you will," said the old man.

The gentleman took the violin and bow in his own hands and said to the old man:

"Now, my mate, you take the money and I will play. I am quite sure people will give us something."

Now, was not that a singular musical association? They had but just become acquainted, and immediately entered into an arrangement to work together for the public.

The strange gentleman began to play. His mate looked at him with great wonder; he could hardly believe it was his old violin that made such beautiful music. Every note was like a pearl.

The first peice was not finished before the people, observing the strange sight and hearing such wonderful music, stopped a moment in curiosity. Every one saw that the fine looking gentleman was playing for the poor man, but none knew who he was. By-and-by the people began to drop money into the hat, and the old dog seemed delighted to receive so many pieces of gold for his master. The circle of hearers became larger and larger. Even the coachman of the splendid carriages begged the people inside to stop and hear the music. Still the money increased. Gold, silver and copper, were thrown into the hat by old and young. The old dog began to growl. What in the world could be the matter? One gentleman, as he dropped a large piece of money into the hat, had struck him on the nose, and he came very near letting the hat and money fall. But it soon became so heavy he could not hold it any longer.

"Empty your hat, old man," said the people, "and we will fill it again for you."

He pulled out an old handkerchief and wrapped the money in it, and put it in his violin-bag.

The stranger kept on playing, and the people cried out, "Bravo! bravo!" in great joy. Even children seemed carried away with rapture. At last he played that splendid song, "God bless the Emperor Francis!" All hats and caps flew off their heads, for the people loved their Emperor. The song finally came to an end. The hour was ended, and the stranger handed back the violin to the old musician.

"Thank you," said he. "May God bless you!" and the stranger disappeared in the crowd.

"Who is he? Who is he?" said the people. "Where does he come from?"

A person sitting in one of the carriages said: "I know him. It is Alexander Boucher, the distinguished violinist. It is just like him. He saw that the old man needed help, and he determined to help him in the best way he could."

The people then gave three cheers for Boucher, and put more money in the old man's hat. When he went home that evening he was richer than he had ever been before. Before he went to his bed he folded his hands and prayed that God might bless good Boucher, so that when he should get to be an old man he might have good friends.

THE UNCOMFORTABLE MAN.—He is usually sour of aspect, stern and sharp of feature, and never seems so nearly happy as when he is making somebody miserable. He is often to be seen in the stage or street-car, where mutual courtesy is the only possible alleviation of insufficient accommodation. He never modifies his angularities that stage passenger No. 12 may have a seat, except upon compulsion. In the street car he jostles and treads upon other people without ceremony, and never yields his place to a woman or to age.

When he is on his travels he appropriates four seats—for himself, his feet, his shawl, and his carpet-bag. Thus fortiffed, he never surrenders voluntarily. At the hotel or restaurant he utters stentorian calls for the waiter, and curses his food when he gets it, no matter if he is well served or not. His prerogative is grumbling, and he shows how "thoroughly posted" he is.

On a crowded sidewalk he indulges in a sort of swimming movement with the hands, other pedestrians being, in his view, only so many waves for his own propulsion. Sometimes the feet of the unhappy man slide from under him. He rises, turns around, and calmly, yet fiercely, anathematizes the flagstone.

At a public meeting of any sort, be it church, lecture, or play, he comes later and goes sooner than anybody else, "to avoid the crowd." He goes out with an ostentatious and deliberate clatter, and, if the thing is possible, he shuts the door with a bang. The rights of a speaker or a thousand hearers are nothing to him, for his silly selfishness must be humored.

We prefer not to follow the uncomfortable man to his home. Were we to do so, we might hear him scolding because he found his street door open. He left it so himself when he went to worry the butcher, the baker, or the man with grievances that are fanciful, or they would not be his. Perhaps we should find him inaugurating a domestic bedlam because he can't find the slippers that are under the sofa, where he kicked them in the morning.

THE DIRTIEST LODGER YET.—There was philosophy as well as hospitality in the reflection of the landlord in New Jersey to whom a singular specimen of humanity applied one night for lodging. It would have been Christianity to have taken him and washed him—besides saving some subsequent trouble.

The customer was a gaunt six-footer, apparently a great stranger to soap and water, and carried a bundle of soiled linen under either arm. Stepping up to the bar, he accosted the proprietor: "Be you the landlord here?" "Well, I rather think I am," replied Boniface. "Can I put up here to-night?" "Look here, stranger, how old are you?" "Thirty-six years." "Well, if Providence has 'put up' with such a pile of filth as you are thirty-six years, I feel it my duty to try and bear with you one night!"

The stranger is supposed to have remained all night, as the landlord was seen busily engaged early next morning airing his bedding and fumigating his house.

DEATH FROM A POISONED ARROW.—The Montgomery (Ala.) Mail of February 9th, says: "A couple of youths were out in the neighborhood of the city practicing with a bow and arrow. One of the boys discovered a snake, and killed it by shooting the reptile through and through with his arrow. Soon afterward one of the boys placed himself behind a tree, and, exposing one of his hands, challenged the other to "shoot at the target." The banter was accepted, and with the same arrow which had just pierced the snake, fired at the exposed hand, and struck it nearly in the center, inflicting a slight wound. In a few hours the hand and arm of the lad began to swell, showing that poison had been communicated by means of the arrow. The youth suffered intense agony, and, after lingering in this horrible condition, expired yesterday."

A HARD-HEADED "NIG."—A freeman attempted to steal a ride on a Georgia railroad, but was discovered by the fireman, who made for him with a pine knot. The darkey jumped from his perch while the train was in motion, landed on his head, split a sleeper where he struck it; then picked himself up and made for the woods. He was last heard exclaiming: "By golly! dis chile's cocoanut am harder dan any sleeper, cos' I'se wide awake, dis nigga is!" The extreme toughness of the African cranium has been often asserted, and this remarkable occurrence seems to place the matter beyond a doubt. Railroad firemen in Georgia must not hereafter chase negroes off the trains, if they have any desire to preserve the iron tracks from destruction.

THE FIRST TWENTY YEARS.—Live as long as you may, the first twenty years form the greater part of your life. They appear so when they are passing, they appear to have been so when we look back to them; and they take up more room in our memory than all the years that succeed them. If this be so, how important that they should be passed in planting good principles, cultivating good tastes, strengthening good habits; fleeing from all those pleasures which lay up bitterness and sorrow for all time to come. Take good care of the first twenty years of your life, and you may hope that the last twenty years will take good care of you.

A GENTLEMAN having got out of all patience with one of his servants, called him in, and after giving him a sound scolding, wound up with the stereotyped phrase, "we must part." The servant stood scratching his head for a moment, and then said, with a look of much concern, "Sorry am I that we must part, yer Honor, but if we must, may I make so bold as to ask where your Honor's going!" The rascal got another trial.

DON'T BE LONG.—A gentleman in want of a wife addressed a passionate billet-deux to a lady, and added this eligible postscript: "Don't be long in answering, as I have somebody else in my eye."

YOLO COUNTY DEMOCRAT.

SATURDAY, : : : : MARCH 28, 1868.

EARTHQUAKE THIS MORNING.—At 11:22 o'clock A. M. to-day, says the San Francisco Bulletin of Tuesday, a quite severe shock of an earthquake was experienced in this city. The shock came suddenly, with only a few premonitory vibrations, and was of a peculiar vertical character, with but little of that swinging or oscillating motion which has characterized previous shocks in this locality. It lasted about six seconds, but was not strong enough to cause any damage. Considerable excitement was occasioned among persons employed in two and three story apartments and offices. The inmates of the upper offices in the Custom House left precipitately, and the Board of Stock-brokers on California street adjourned to the flag-stones without ceremony. It was expected that the old leaning wall of the American Theater had gone down, but the timbers placed against it this morning probably prevented it. The County Court was in session at the time. Judge McKinstry hurriedly remarked that he would adjourn Court for five minutes, and was among the first out. Most of the inmates of the City Hall made a hasty exit. At the time of the shock the air was perfectly clear and cool, with a light breeze blowing from the west. Many persons on the street felt the shock and saw the houses moved by it.

THE G. A. R's.—The editor of the Stockton Gazette has been on a flying trip to Sacramento. While there he stepped in to hear parson Stone's address to the Grand Association of Reprobates. Here is what he says about it:

In the course of his (Stone's) remarks he stated the cause of secrecy in the order was for no other purpose than for the recognition of its members, and that there was nothing political in its organization. A short time after he contradicts himself by saying (or words to the effect) that should one of its members ever come before the public for political preference, the Grand Army of the Republic were expected to be a unit in voting; that the reins of Government should never be wrenched from the hands of those who were instrumental in saving it from destruction, and intimated, very plainly, that the Grand Army of the Republic were prepared to fight unto death any party opposed to the present one in power. His whole discourse seems to have been written for the ears of the Radical party, and purely for political purposes.

NEW ATLAS.—Mitchell's New General Atlas has recently been offered through the agent, C. J. Kenyon, to the citizens of Yolo. The work is undoubtedly one of rare merit, and will, in all probability, meet with a ready sale. The Atlas contains a series of eighty maps, with many valuable statistical tables. A complete list of post-offices in the United States is given; also a statement of the population of the United States, the Canadas and all the chief cities, States and countries of the world, with the distances and difference of time between the principal ports and cities. It is neatly printed and bound, and forms an attractive and instructive work that will recommend itself at once to the teacher and pupil.

THE VALLEJO AND SACRAMENTO RAILROAD. The Vallejo Recorder says:

The contractor for laying the track with the new patent track-layer, has been notified that the company are ready for him to go ahead, and he will probably commence before the first proximo. About 70 men are now employed at the wharf. As soon as the weather is settled, some 250 will be put on the line at once. A passenger train will leave on the 1st of August for Sacramento. All aboard!

It is said that most of the material for this much-talked-of road has been purchased and is ready to be converted into a means of speedy communication between Vallejo and Sacramento. If this be a fact, the farmers of Yolo will soon find a more convenient market for the products of their fertile fields.

THE OTHER SIDE.—In Stockton, recently, a man named Shearer advertised his wife as having "left his bed and board."etc. To this said wife replies as follows through the same paper:

Albert Shearer having advertised me in the Stockton Independent as having left his bed and board, which is a gross mis-statement of facts, because he never, to my knowledge, had any more than one or two pairs of blankets in the bedding line. My parents furnished bed and board for both of us from the time we were married until we parted. If Mr. Shearer will keep nearer to the truth in his statements he will do credit to himself and justice to me.

HYMENIAL.—The two factions of the Republican party in Sacramento, designated by the euphonious titles of "Long Hairs" and "Short Hairs," says the Stockton Gazette, have finally married and retired to the same nuptial couch. Scudder's bill, for the prevention of seduction, is supposed to have hurried them up. Their offspring, should they ever be blessed with any, which is doubtful, would bear a close resemblance to Barnum's "What-is-it."

A SLIGHT MISTAKE.—We have been told, says the Stockton Gazette, that one of the Republican orators (?) the other night, gave it as his deliberate opinion that W. L. Yancey would, in all probability, be the next Democratic candidate for President. We believe that the Democracy are generally in the habit of nominating live candidates. As Yancey has been dead several years he will hardly be the nominee this year. That astute individual had best burnish up his memory, have his head rubbed, and take a bath—it will do him good.

GRAPES IN MARCH.—Messrs. A. Lusk & Co., says the S. F. Times, are in receipt of several boxes of grapes from San José which look and taste as fresh as if in season. Fresh flavored grapes in March is unusual, even in California, and it is an item worthy the attention of viniculturists.

THERE have been green peas in the San Francisco market for a week. They sell for fifty cents a pound.

WHEN the Pacific Railroad is completed, a traveler may go round the world in three months.

The Impeachment Imbroglio.

Late dispatches from the East give the information that Johnson's counsel have been denied further time to answer the charges and specifications of impeachment, and that Monday, the 30th inst., is the day appointed to commence the trial of the President. The unusual haste in these proceedings by the Senate is nothing more than might be expected at the hands of violent, reckless fanatics, swayed by the tide of passion in their insane efforts to perpetuate the power of the Radical party. Thus, a dangerous crisis in the affairs of the Government has been inaugurated, the end of which no man can see. The faithless, unpardonable course of the dominent party for several years past has so plainly indicated to the reflective mind their evil intentions, that few will be disappointed in witnessing a culmination of their wickedness, which has the natural tendency to destroy everything pertaining to our institutions worthy of the devotion of American citizens. The bitter contention between Congress and the President might easily have been avoided if that body had shown the least inclination to respect the forms of law, and allowed the matter to have been tested in the proper tribunal. But no sentiment of magnanimity could be expected to prevail in a counsel of conspirators whose eager desire to clutch in their own hands the power of the Executive department is prompted by the perfidious idea of their own political aggrandisement regardless of consequences. In the calm judgment of the American people, there can be no other reason assigned for the persecution of Andrew Johnson by a corrupt Congress. The idea of adjudging him guilty of "high crimes and misdemeanors" because he has seen fit to exercise a right or privilege in displacing an obnoxious member of his cabinet, is simply ridiculous and absurd. Such rights and privileges have never before been questioned as beyond the province of a President since the foundation of the Government, and nothing but the grossest disrespect for the Executive office and the fundamental principles of Government could lead to a violation of the established usage. To what end does this reckless fanaticism lead? Surely it requires no philosophy to show that the present form of Government must undergo a change from the blows of its enemies, and that upon its ruins a military despotism, of the worst type, will be established. In an alarming time like the present—when the peace, prosperity and happiness of the people are threatened with destruction—patience and forbearance are virtues which must not be lost sight of, and yet every lover of his country should be fully aroused to a sense of the impending danger; and when forbearance shall have been exhausted, prepare himself—if the necessity shall come—to defend, to the bitter end, his fire-side and his country from the encroachments of unprincipled usurpers.

DO NOT BE ENSLAVED.—Wealth-creators, poor men, artisans, farmers, do you intend to be taxed for the benefit of men who pay no taxes? Are you willing to sweat out and pay over two hundred millions of dollars per year to men who pay forty cents on a dollar for bonds they now require one hundred cents on a dollar in gold for? Do you subscribe to the principle that paper is good enough for the wealth-creators, but the drones in the hive must have gold? Will you destroy yourselves and your children, to pay a set of Shylocks, not only the pound of flesh, but your hearts' blood also, because such was their price "for saving the life of the nation?" Paper for the poor man and gold for the rich, is a principle which will throw the taxpayer into perpetual bondage.—[Day Book.

CROPS IN PLACER COUNTY.—News from different points in the county, says the Placer Herald, is very favorable to good crops. In the western portion, of which Lincoln is the central point, the crop of cereals, to the breadth of acres sown, never promised better at this season of the year. In the foothills, ranging from Clipper Gap to the plains, the grain has been damaged by the freezing weather for the past two months, but the present fine spring sunshine and showery days is bringing it out wonderfully. In this latter section the prospect for an abundant fruit crop was never better. Fruit trees are from two to three weeks later in blooming than in former seasons, thus rendering the crop almost certainly secure from frost.

SUPREME COURT.—The Assembly yesterday passed the bill removing the Supreme Court to San Francisco. We can conceive of no good reason for such a move. It is doubtless gotten up for the convenience of a few San Francisco lawyers, but where it will oblige one member of the bar, a dozen must be injuriously affected. The great bulk of the business comes from the State at large, outside of San Francisco. Besides, the State Library is here, and it will cost a very heavy sum of money to purchase another for the use of the Court below. We sincerely trust this bill will be reconsidered and defeated.—[Reporter, 26th.

CALLING ON A STRANGER.—In the United States Senate the Chaplain opened the session with prayer, beseeching the Almighty to preside over the deliberations of the Court of Impeachment. That chaplain knocked at the wrong door. An appeal to Beelzebub would have been more appropriate. If the Almighty fails to preside over that "high old" Court of Impeachment they will try to impeach Him also.—[Union Democrat.

THE RAIN FALL.—The rain-fall of the present season, at Nevada, has been 100.06 inches. This is within nine inches of the heaviest rain ever known here in a single winter, says the Transcript.

THE Courier says there were five or six thousand dollars in goods belonging to Shasta county merchants on the steamer Victor.

THE Boise City papers state that the young fruit trees have all been killed in that section by the cold weather during the winter.

IT is said that the new mortgage law will reduce State funds to the amount of half a million of dollars.

Letter from San Francisco.

[Special Correspondence of the Democrat.]

SAN FRANCISCO, March 22, '68.

THE WEATHER.

There is nothing, that I know of, which breaks the ice so effectually as the weather. With it, we launch forth either in the street or the drawing-room, upon almost any subject, no matter how obstruse. Well, the weather is exceedingly fine. We have been enjoying, these last four days, just such weather as the books say they have over in Italy when the country has a holiday. And, speaking of holidays, reminds me of that miniature Fourth of July which usually falls on the 17th of March, and which, from the force of habit, is called

ST. PATRICK'S DAY.

This year, more than any other, had our Irish fellow-citizens reason to celebrate the anniversary of their patron Saint. They felt, every mother's son of them, as they passed with their shamrocks and their badges, that "For the wrong that needs resistance,

For the right that lacks assistance,
For the future in the distance"— they could dare do anything. These thousands of sturdy sons of the "auld sod," viewing them, as I did, not from a Patrick but from a patriotic point, looked very promising for our State, as they are certainly to vote the straight Democratic ticket at the next Presidential election, and then—and then we'll all feel gay. It is scarce necessary to enter into details with reference to the celebration of St. Patrick's day, as your readers are all familiar with what zeal the children of the Emerald Isle observe this day, and then the particulars have been anticipated by our daily papers.

AMUSEMENTS.

Though it does cost money to live in a Cosmopolitan city like this, we get, in most cases, our money's worth. Just think of the many theaters, with their stars and satellites—their crooked Crooks and fawning Fawns; our minstrels, our concerts, our Chinese, German and French performers, not to mention the Anatomical Museum and the many side-shows which stare you in the face in almost every prominent street. I tell you it is a glorious privilege to be permitted to live in the city, especially this city of San Francisco, where corner lots are not to be sneezed at and where the Bank of California is ever ready to advance you any amount of money—if you have the collaterals.

I had almost forgotten to mention that the whale—the same old whale I spoke of in my last, is yet on the programme, and properly belongs to the amusements of San Francisco, as people go farther to see that monster, and pay more in proportion to what they get, than at any other sight-seeing place. Since the incorporation mania has taken such a hold of our people, I should not wonder but what the whale will soon be duly incorporated, and slices of it taken for exhibition all over the interior, as there seems to be a determination on the part of those who own the defunct whale to make all they can out of the putrid carcass, and so they have drifted her from Rincon Point to North Beach, where, if she remains, this warm weather, another day, she will certainly either stink out the inhabitants in that locality, or what is worse, bring the cholera into our midst.

ELDER KNAPP'S CONVERSION.

Even the denizens of Woodland must have heard of the needle-gun revivalist, Elder Knapp, who is making sad havoc at present among those of our people who are in favor of dancing, theaters, and other innocent amusements, and opposed to the healthy exercise of immersion. Well, this Elder, after having traveled all the way from his farm in Illinois, and harangued the people in divers places and on divers subjects—treating of Heaven and hell as though he had taken the census of those unearthly places—has finally triumphed, as he and many of his congregation believe, in converting a Jewish Rabbi to the faith. But the story does not end here. You see, the Elder has many opponents in this city; not spiritual adversaries, such as he had to contend against in Stockton, but enemies of the Dramatic Chronicle type who poke the greatest of fun at the Elder, though he may be in the midst of a most fervent exhortation; and they have discovered that the converted Jewish Rabbi was not even a Jew tailor, as the Hebrew papers here have it, but a Polish Christian, who, having all his life lived among the Jews, acquired their language and habits, and was thus enabled to palm himself off on the Elder for a Jewish Rabbi, create a stir in the revival, and draw the attention of the Mission down upon him to the tune of $60 per month. This is not facetious idle talk, but solid truth, and the Elder will not be pleased at all when he finds out that he has converted a Christian to Christianity at such an enormous outlay of time and money.

ODDS AND ENDS.

When I launched out to write to you, the weather was as I described it—most beautiful. But I have scarcely finished, when the windows of heaven are open again, and before the postman takes this scrawl away, it may come down in the rough old style of '49. That's the way with California weather and California women—it won't do to bet much on them.

The greatest joke of the season is that headless rooster they have alive at Woodward's garden; and everybody you meet asks, "Going out to see Woodward's cock?" A strange freak in nature, to be sure; but then people enjoy those things—yes, they actually pay for looking at the decapitated rooster. That's the way with the world.

Woodland, although I have never had the pleasure of looking in upon that town, must be of some importance after all; as going down to the steamer Montana the other day, I observed several cases of goods marked "Woodland," with such names as Fleishman & Kaufman. The names themselves are not very inviting, as a man of meat, and another who has caveat emptor stamped upon his forehead, do not elicit my admiration. But then those goods, which are undoubtedly in those ominous cases will certainly have a charm for the people of Yolo; at least I think so, and am further of opinion that a town which can support importers, ought certainly be able to support a daily Democratic paper.

Old Sol is out again in all his glory, and if it does not cloud up and rain before night we shall certainly have a very fine day. The steamer Golden City has got in, and brought a large number of passengers, many of them old Californians who are heartily sick of the cold, unfeeling East, the high price of living and the general stagnation in business.

At the present rate of homestead incorporations, which embraces every piece of sterile land, from water lots to sand patches way back in Mt. Diablo, I should not be surprised if some enterprising capitalist would seize upon the idea of incorporating Seal Rock for homesteads. You perceive the feasibility of the plan—the soil the best within a radius of ten miles—the climate most salubrious—the view the most magnificent on the entire coast, and the music of the lions thrown in "free-gratis-and-for-nothing," is surely worth the serious attention of all those who look for land in Alaska. U. Low.

TOWN AND COUNTY MATTERS.

DEMOCRATIC MEETING.—On Monday evening last a large number of Democrats met at the Court House, in Woodland, to participate in an old fashioned Democratic meeting, which had been announced only a few days previous, and without the usual ceremonies or arrangements considered necessary on such occasions. It was however expected that J. W. Coffroth, and other distinguished speakers, would be present to address the meeting. This fact sufficed to attract an audience which filled the Court room to its utmost capacity, and the meeting was in every respect a decided success. The meeting was called to order by Wm. Minis, who, after stating the object of the gathering, introduced Judge Gwinn to the audience. The Judge spoke at some length, pronouncing a scathing rebuke to the Rump Congress and corruptionists of the Radical party. Judge Drake, of San Francisco, was next called for, and, on being introduced by the Chairman, made some well-timed remarks, exhorting Democrats to battle manfully in the cause of Right, and prove themselves worthy of the great victory that awaited their united action in the coming campaign. J. W. Coffroth having arrived at the hall, was loudly called for, and proceeded in one of his most eloquent efforts to discuss the issues of the day. His speech, throughout, was an able argument in opposition to the tyrannical usurpations of the Radical party, and in favor of Democratic principles. He was frequently applauded, and at the close of his remarks a number came forward and enrolled their names on the list of members of the Democratic Club at this place. J. W. Snowball was next called for. On taking the stand, he remarked that he would address what few remarks he intended to make to the Woodland Democratic Club. He thought that much credit was due to those who had been instrumental in organizing this pioneer club of Yolo county, and that happy results would follow, for already its influence was felt all over the county, and clubs were springing up in every precinct to aid in the glorious work. He said that Knight's Landing had done her work nobly, and sent greeting to her sister Club at Woodland. He felt proud of the energetic and earnest action of the Yolo Democracy, and was assured that the political record of the county in the Presidential campaign would be brighter than ever before. H. G. Burnett was called for and made some appropriate remarks. He stated that, although he had, up to the present time, been identified with the Republican party, he professed to be a lover of Constitutional liberty, and believed that it was just and proper that this Government should be administered by white men, and that in signing his name as a member of a Democratic Club, he did so because he could no longer suffer himself to remain in the ranks of a party which had proved recreant to the trusts reposed in it, and because he believed that if the principles of the Democratic party were carried out it would be the most effectual mode of restoring peace and prosperity to a distracted country. The meeting did not adjourn until a late hour.

DEMOCRACY AT COTTONWOOD.—We learn that a meeting of the Democrats, residing in Cottonwood precinct, was held on Saturday last at the store of J. L. Levison, for the purpose of organizing a Club. A large number were present, and the same good feeling and earnestness which have marked the progress of other clubs in Yolo county, prevailed on the occasion. J. S. Tutt was called to the chair, and J. L. Levison elected Secretary, pro tem. The following declaration of principles was presented by a committee, approved by a unanimous vote, and signed by all present: "1st. We believe, with Stephen A. Douglas, that a negro is not and never ought to be a citizen of the United States, and hold that this Government was made upon a white basis, by white men, for the benefit of white men and their posterity forever; and should be administered by white men and none others. 2d. We are favor of the Union, and the whole Union, on the basis of the Federal Constitution, of the equality of each and every State as coequal and indestructible members of the Government of the United States. Resolved, That the Democracy of Cottonwood will support President Johnson in all legal and Constitutional acts, in opposition to the tyrannical and destructive measures of a corrupt Congress." On motion, it was ordered that a committee of one be appointed to confer with the Buckeye Club, with the view of uniting the energies of the Democracy of both precincts, and securing speakers for the next meeting. J. A. Price was appointed as said committee. The meeting then adjourned to meet on Saturday, the 28th inst., for the purpose of permanent organization." All honor to Cottonwood. Such timely action on her part is another verification of the fiat already gone forth to seal the doom of Radicalism.

MEETING OF THE CENTRAL COMMITTEE.—The Democratic Central Committee of Yolo county held a meeting at the Court House on Monday last, and performed the duties devolving upon them. Saturday, the 15th of April, at 2 o'clock P. M., is the time set by order of the Committee for holding precinct meetings to elect delegates to the County Convention, which will be held in Woodland, on Saturday, April 22d, at which time and place delegates will be appointed to the Democratic State Convention, to be held in San Francisco, on the 29th day of April. The test of voters at the primary elections will be, "Opposition to negro Suffrage and Rump despotism." This timely action of the Committee should meet a hearty response from Democrats all over the county, and every precinct should be represented in Convention by the full number of delegates apportioned.

BUCKEYE CLUB.—We learn that the Democracy at Buckeye held a meeting on Saturday, 14th inst., for the purpose of organizing a Club at that place. The meeting was well attended and much interest taken in the proceedings. Col. F. G. Russell was elected President, and G. Billingsly Secretary. Patriotic speeches were made by Col. Russell, Judge Daniel and others. The Club is thoroughly organized and prepared to meet the enemy. Let other counties follow the noble example set them by Yolo, and not a shadow of hope will be left for the perpetrators of Radical misrule.

THANKS.—I. N. Choynski, of the Antiquarian Book Store, 2d street, San Francisco, will accept our thanks for a package of valuable Eastern papers.

CIRCUMCISION.—We accepted an invitation to witness the interesting ceremony of circumcision which took place on Thursday evening last at the residence of Gabriel Kaufman, whose new-born son was the subject of the time-honored Jewish rite. The ceremony was conducted by Rev. A Galland, of San Francisco, and witnessed by a host of invited guests. The patriarchal name of Moses was bestowed upon the youthful representative of the Jewish faith. A most excellent dinner, supplied with all the delicacies of the season, was prepared in a tasteful manner and enjoyed by all present. Sparkling wine and champagne flowed freely, and the bidding of "good-night" was postponed until late in the evening. Vive le Moses!

A FALL.—On Sunday last a partner of one of our medical firms, while returning from a professional visit, met with a heavy fall from his steed, on Main street. The Doctor, whose aldermanic proportions were supposed to have sustained injury, was immediately surrounded by sympathizing friends who assisted in gathering up the fragments of his medicine chest, and aided him to remount the refractory animal. As the rider waved an adieu to the admiring crowd a Strong voice was heard in condemnation of stumbling horses.

PENMANSHIP.—Prof. J. Buck has returned to Woodland and announced his intention to give lessons in Spencerian penmanship. The success which attended the efforts of Prof. Buck during the progress of his former school in Woodland, and subsequently in Sacramento, is a sufficient guarantee that he will give entire satisfaction to his patrons. The term commences on Monday evening the 30th instant, at the District School House. Terms for course of fifteen lessons, $5 50, stationery included.

SPIRITUALISTS.—A few of the "faithful" have signed a call for a meeting of the Spiritualists of this county, to be held in Woodland on the 25th of April next, to elect delegates to attend a State Convention which is to be held in San Francisco on the 1st of May.

GRAY & FREEMAN.—During the past week this firm has been constantly receiving a large supply of Spring and Summer clothing and other goods suited to the market. They are offering rare inducements to customers.

LETTERS detained in the Woodland postoffice for want of postage: Third Assistant P. M. Gen., Washington, D. C.; P. M., San Francisco (2); Mrs. E. Grigsby, Liberty, Cal.; Mrs. Clara M. Parcell, Guthrie Center, Iowa.

GONE EAST.—E. H. Warren and family and the wife of C. S. Frost of Woodland, left for the Atlantic States on the last steamer. Mrs. Frost goes on a visit to her friends in Illinois, and expects to return soon.

SHEEP RAISERS.—The attention of wool growers is called to the advertisement of Miller & Co., San Francisco.

Notice to Contractors.

SEALED PROPOSALS will be received by the Board of Supervisors of Yolo county, until 2 o'clock P. M., Wednesday, April 1st, 1868, for the grading of one-half mile of that portion of the county road half mile west of Knight's Landing, between the lands of Gwinn and Zimmerman. The parties to whom the contract may be awarded will be required to take a subscription list of $800 subscribed by petitioners, the balance to be paid out of the county road fund. Also one half-mile between the lands of J. M. Walker and Hiram Fairchild, one and a half miles west of Knight's Landing, supposed to be about 2,500 cubic yards. The parties to whom the contract may be awarded will be required to take a subscription from petitioners for one-third of said contract, the balance to be paid out of the county road fund. Proposals for the above work must state the price per cubic yard. The Supervisors reserving the right to accept or reject any or all bids.

STOP THAT COUGHING.

Some of you can't, and we pity you. You have tried every remedy but the one destined, by its intrinsic merit, to supersede all similar preparations. It is not surprising you should be reluctant to try something else after the many experiments you have made of trashy compounds foisted on the public as a certain cure, but is really the very best remedy ever compounded for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Sore throat, Asthma, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis and Consumption. Thousands of persons in California and Oregon have been already benefited by the surprising curative powers of

and with one accord give it their unqualified approbation. We now address ourselves to all who are unacquainted with this, the greatest Panacea of the age, for the healing of all diseases of the throat and lungs, assuring you that has cured thousands and it will cure you if you try it.

This invaluable medicine is pleasant to the taste, soothing, healing and strengthening in its effects, entirely free from all poisonous and deleterious drugs, and perfectly harmless under all circumstances.

Certificates from many prominent citizens of San Francisco accompany every bottle of Newell's Pulmonary Syrup.

REDINGTON & CO.'S

Extract of Jamaica Ginger.

This valuable preparation containing in a highly concentrated form all the properties of the Jamaica Ginger, has become one of the most popular domestic remedies for all diseases of the stomach and digestive organs.

As a tonic it will be found invaluable to all persons recovering from debility, whether produced by fever or otherwise, for whilst it imparts to the system all the glow and vigor that can be produced by wine or brandy, it is entirely free from the reactionary effects that follow the use of spirits of any kind.

It is also an excellent remedy for females who suffer from difficult menstruation, giving almost immediate relief to the spasm that so frequently accompany that period.

It gives immediate relief to Nausea, caused by riding in a railroad car, or by sea-sickness, or other causes.

It is also valuable as an external application for Gout, Neuralgia, etc.

HAIR
RESTORER.

Trust no other, howe'er pleasant—
None can do what this has done;
Try it—always keep it present—
Use the "Martha Washington."

It is used by all and is acknowlekged to be superior to any other preparation in market.
It keeps the hair soft and glossy.
It changes the hair to its original color.
It prevents the hair falling out.
It prevents premature baldness.
It makes old heads look young, and, in fact it will do all expected of a good, genuine Hair Restorer.

Twenty thousand heads remind us
What a noble test it's stood;
Millions more shall come behind us,
With their tresses all renewed.

Do not be humbugged by buying any other preparation. Try it, by all means try it and you will never regret it.

N. B.—Be sure to ask for the "Martha Washington" Hair Restorer, and take no other.

YOLO COUNTY DEMOCRAT.

COULDN'T GO HASH.—A raw Irishman, just over, went into a restaurant, and was asked by the waiter what he would have? "Why, somethin' to ate, uv coorse," was the reply. A plate of hash was place before him. "Fot's that!" demanded he. "That's wittles," was the answer. He eyed the compound suspiciously for some time, and finally exclaimed: "Be jabers, the man that chewed that can ate it!"

A MAN in Yorkshire was prosecuted for kicking his wife out of bed. His counsel admited the charge, but said there were extenuating circumstances. "What are they?" asked the magistrate. "She persistently scratched his back with a currycomb, may it please your Honor." "It don't please me at all, and I dismiss the complaint," was the magisterial response.

HONOR is a pair of gloves, which a worldly man puts on when he goes abroad, to hide the color of his hands, and pulls off, when he's done, to get at his object more conveniently. True religion is a timepeice, which a man of sense puts in his pocket when he is in the street, and draws out and lays upon his desk when he comes in, to direct him in his private business.

A HAPPY HOME.—Six things are requisite to create a "happy home." Integrity must be the architect, and tidiness the upholsterer. It must be warmed by affection, and lighted up by cheerfulness, and industry must be the ventilator, renewing the atmosphere and bringing in fresh sulubrity day by day; while over all, as a protecting glory and canopy, nothing will suffice except the glory of God.

A CONJUGAL COMPLIMENT.—"What's the matter, my dear?" said a wife to her husband, who had sat for half an hour with his face buried in his hands, appparently in great tribulation. "O! I don't know," said he; "I have felt like a fool all day." "Well," replied the wife, consolingly, "I am afraid you will never get any better; you look the very picture of what you feel."

BABIES VS. WHEAT.—Babies resemble wheat in many respects. First, neither are good for much before they arrive at maturity; second, both are bred in the house, and are also the flower of the family; third, both have to be cradled; fourth, both are generally well thrashed before they are done with.

LET all troublesome topics be avoided at meals. Do not dwell upon the difficulties of business, the delinquincies of domestics, or discipline the children at the dinner table, for a cheerful spirit not only gives relish for food, but a good start at digesting the same.

A DRUNKEN fellow got out of his calculation and was dosing in the street, when the bells roused him by their ringing for fire. "Nine, ten, eleven, twelve, thirteen, fourteen," cried he; "well, if this isn't later than I ever knew it."

A GENTLEMAN on leaving a hotel, where he had been stopping several days, rewarded the attention of an obliging servant with a gratuity. "Ah?" said the grateful Pat, "long may your honor live, and may I make your fires hereafter!"

WHEN INTOXICATED, a Frenchman wants to dance; a German to sing; a Spaniard, to gamble; an Englishman, to eat; an Italian, to boast; a Russian, to be affectionate; an Irishman, to fight; and an American, to make a speech.

WHAT is the difference between a handsome woman of thirty and a pretty girl out of breath through dancing too soon after supper? The one is a full-blown beauty; the other is a full beauty blown.

WHEN FRIENDSHIP IS TO BE VALUED.—Value the friendship of him who stands by you in the storm; swarms of insect will surround you in the sunshine.

"WON'T you take half of this poor apple?" said a pretty damsel. "No, I thank you; I would prefer a better half." Eliza blushed, and referred him to her papa.

A DETROIT man held a reception party recently to receive congratulations upon having visited Chicago and returned without being divorced from his wife.

THE young lady who has been telling how she felt the first time her lover kissed her, is requested to state how she felt the first time she was spanked.

WHAT is the difference between a railway train and a suspending bank? In one case the brake causes the stoppage, in the other the stoppage causes she break.

Democratic State Convention.

At a meeting of the DEMOCRATIC STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE, held in San Francisco on the 27th and 28th of February, 1868, it was

Resolved, That a Democratic State Convention be held in the city of San Francisco on WEDNESDAY, APRIL TWENTY-NINTH, at noon, to nominate Ten Delegates to the Democratic National Convention, and Five Electors for President and Vice-President, of the United States, and for the transaction of such other business as the Convention may determine.

Delegates to the Conventon will be elected in conformity with the following apportionment, based upon the vote cast for Hon. Henry H. Haight for Governor, giving one Delegate for each County, one for each two hundred Democratic vores, and one for each additional one hundred votes or over.

APPORTIONMENT.

The following test for qualification to participate in the election of Delegates, was adopted:

All voters opposed to the Radical policy of Congress, to Negro or Chinese suffrage, and in favor of a Constitutional administration of the Government of the whole Union, shall be entitled to vote for Delegates.

The Central Committee urgently request the different County Committees of the Democratic Party to call their County Conventions for the election of Delegates at as early a date as possible, and to forward to Thos. N. Cazneau, Secretary of the State Central Committee, at the Rooms of the Committee, 321 California street, a full list of their County Committees, officers and members.

The following was unanimously adopted by the Central Committee, and directed to be published for the acceptance of County Committees:

Resolved, That it is recommended to the County Committees that, in their calls for County Conventions, the Delegates elected to the State Convention constitute Congressional Conventions, to meet at the same time and place, to nominate candidates for Congress for their respective Districts, if such are to be elected, and to appoint District Committees for each Congressional District.

The State Central Committee deem it eminently proper that, in the discharge of their duties to the great majority of the people of the State of California, who are united under the time-honored political organization which the Committee represent, as well as to the great Conservative masses of our people, to express their sentiments upon the momentous issues now threatening the stability of our Government, and have unanimously adopted the following resolutions:

Resolved, That the Radical majority in Congress, instead of seeking to lighten the burdens of taxation, disregarding both the will of the people and their official oaths in an unnatural pursuit after Negro Equality, having been laboring to usurp the functions of the Executive, degrade the Judiciary, and after committing the indecency of forcing upon the President a Cabinet officer personally offensive to him, and making a military subordinate independent of the orders of the President, thus uniting in their own hands the purse and the sword, they have for the first time presented to the world the disgraceful spectacle of an American Pesident arraigned by a party vote, avowedly for party purposes, before a Senate, more than two thirds of which is composed of his political opponents, and placed on trial for no crime except that of having endeavored to preserve, protect and defend the Constitution of the United States and the liberties of the people; that in these proceedings the Radical party in Congress have been manifestly actuated by a desire to perpetuate themselves in office, and merit the unqualified condemnation of all good citizens, without distinction of party.

Resolved, That this Committee view with sincere alarm the revolutionary action of the Radical majority in Congress, condemned in the foregoing resolution, believing the same calculated to create wide-spread distrust, and seriously derange the other great interests of the country.

The State Central Committe desire to impress upon the Democratic and Conservative voters of the State the necessity of assembling in their various localities, to form Clubs, and to take active measures for the approaching political campaign that the rights of the people may be preserved, the Constitution upheld, and the Union again united.

By order of the Democratic State Central Committee. J. P. HOGE, President.
THOS. N. CAZNEAU, Secretary.

Mutual Life Insurance Co
OF BOSTON.

DECEMBER 31, 1866.

Cash Assets.....$5,067,382 84.

The Oldest Purely Mutual Life Insurance Company in the United States.

Dividends declared annually. First dividend available at the payment of the second annual premium. All the Policies remain in force so long as there may be any surrender value. Thus a party insuring at the age of thirty-five on Life plan—

1 annual premium continues policy				2 years and 3 days.
2	"	"	"	4 years and 12 days.
3	"	"	"	6 years and 28 days.
4	"	"	"	8 years and 46 days.
5	"	"	"	10 years and 56 days.

Careful investigation and unbiased judgment will conclusively show that this old Company offers advantages that cannot be equaled by any other Company doing business on this coast. No stockholders in this Company.

Official Reports made January 1, 1867, show this Company's ratio of Premium Reserve to be larger than any other Company in the United States.

☞ Notes will be taken in part payment of Premiums, drawing interest at the rate of six per cent. per annum.

Fifteen Years Monopoly!

The subscriber offers for sale the right to put down T. S. LEWIS' in the several unsold county rights in this State, to wit: Yolo, San Joaquin and Sacramento counties. By the use of this Tube, a Well is obtained at less than one-tenth the labor of digging. The Wells are permanent, convenient, require no cleaning, and will endure for ages without cost for repairs.

PATENT TUBE WELLS,

Any man with the will and strength to wield a sledge-hammer, can, unaided, make from $16 to $60 per day, every day he may labor, at putting down these wells, and have a county monopoly for fifteen years and three months. The patent was issued in May last, as an improvement on all Tubed Wells. In nine months' time it has been introduced, and is now in use in every State in the Union, excepting Nevada and Oregon. The Well can be seen and tested in this city.

For particulars, call on the subscriber, corner of 8th and Brannan streets, San Francisco, or address through post-office.
